How does Learning Look Feel and Sound at Craigroyston?

To ensure a quality learning and teaching we ensuring the following elements are always part of the learning experience. We

- nurture strong relationships with all of our pupils; they know we are there to support and guide them
- display clear, meaningful learning intentions
- jointly construct challenging success criteria with our pupils
- use a range of learning strategies (including play as our core offer in P1 and P2)
- know when our learners are not progressing and assist them
- providing immediate and relevant feedback
- actively modelling how to be a learner

Whether we are learning actively, beyond or within the classroom, through play, discovery or online, the 'essential ingredients' listed above underpin our practice and ensure our school values nurture, inspire and flourish are evident in every lesson.

Play for Learning: Our Offer

Learning experiences in P1 engage and challenge children's thinking using real-life and imaginary situations. We take full advantage of the opportunities for learning presented by:

- spontaneous play
- planned, purposeful play
- investigating and exploring
- events and life experiences
- focused learning and teaching
- active learning through direct teaching

It is this blend that ensures the needs of all learners are met.

Home Learning

Find out about their day. What happened? Every time you ask what they have done at school and listen to what they say, you help them to communicate better

Help them to be organised and responsible. Have they got the right equipment and books before going to school? Check that their home learning (available weekly on our school website) is done

Share everyday activities. Involve them in planning a family event, journey or holiday. Get them to help with tasks around the house e.g. preparing the dinner.

Read together. Use the football results or a trip to the shops to discuss numbers and words

Each class shares Home Learning tasks each week- more to come after September
